

MINISTERS LEAVE FOR CONFERENCE

Several Pastoral Changes Will Be Made in Petersburg District.

PRINCE GEORGE SCHOOL FAIR

Will Be Held on Friday—Regular Meeting of Board of Aldermen.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau.
5 Hollingsbrook Street.
(Telephone 1845).

Petersburg, Va., November 12.

The westbound train on the Norfolk and Western Railway carried up to Lynchburg a large number of Methodist ministers and laymen to Lynchburg to attend the one hundred and thirtieth session of the Virginia Annual Conference, which meets in that city to-morrow. Among those who boarded the train at Petersburg was Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, who will preside over the conference. The Rev. J. K. Joffe, presiding elder of the Petersburg District, is prevented from attending the opening sessions of the conference because of his presence at the bedside of the Rev. J. T. Taylor, of Newport News, father of Joffe, who is reported as ailing. Mr. and Mrs. Joffe are both with Dr. Taylor. Dr. Barker, of this city, will act as presiding elder during Mr. Joffe's absence.

The lay delegates for the Petersburg district to conference are: L. W. Butcher, of Petersburg; W. A. Trotter, of Lawrenceville; J. H. Wall, of South Hill, and W. A. Davis, of Dinwiddie. Representatives from the district on the various conference boards are: board of education, Dr. W. E. Brewer; Sunday school board, R. H. Hartley; of Stoney Creek, church extension, E. H. O'Kennon, Petersburg; Epworth League, I. R. Dyer, Petersburg; missions, Walker Sparklin, Petersburg.

The opening sermon will be preached by the Rev. T. A. Smoot, D. D., of Norfolk, and the ordination sermon by the Rev. T. J. Mastin, of Richmond.

Several pastoral changes will be made in the Petersburg district. It is expected that Presiding Elders J. K. Joffe, of Petersburg, and W. A. Christian, of Lawrenceville, will be given an exchange of districts. Among the pastors who will be transferred to new charges are the Rev. W. T. Haynes, of Wesley Church, Petersburg; the Rev. J. W. Eare, of East Dinwiddie; the Rev. W. E. Grant, of Dinwiddie; the Rev. R. B. Baughn, of West Dinwiddie; the Rev. N. B. Foushee, of Wakefield, and the Rev. John T. Payne, of Brunswick.

Best Report in Its History.
The fourth quarterly conference of High Street M. E. Church was held last night and the best report in the history of the church was made. The total collection during the year for all purposes was $9,000, an average per capita of $12.50, and the amount donated to missions was $2,652. Every obligation of the church was promptly met.

Prince George School Fair.
The Prince George School Fair will be held in the new High School building, at the county courthouse, on Friday, and the occasion is expected to be a great event. Governor Mann has accepted an invitation to be present and deliver an address. Jackson Davis, State superintendent of schools, S. Farrar, in charge of corn demonstration work, and others will also speak. The school exhibits will be of great excellence, and a fine program of exercises has been prepared, embracing parades, music, declamations, recitations, games, etc.

Dr. Deaths.
Mrs. Martha Susan Phillips, aged fifty-six years, wife of Quincy A. Phillips, died last night at her home in Matocca, after an illness of ten months. Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, James W. and William A. Phillips, two brothers, Sidney H. and John D. Williams, and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Phillips and Miss Ida Womack, all of Matocca.

Mrs. Clarence Bryan, aged twenty-seven years, died at an early hour this morning in the Petersburg Hospital. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Neal, of this city, who survive her. She is also survived by one son and by two brothers and five sisters—J. H. and Colin Neal, Mrs. Ida V. Lee, Mrs. B. L. Wilkerson, Mrs. E. W. Wilkerson, of Richmond; Mrs. J. E. Dwyer and Miss Eva Neal, of this city.

Baptist S. Association.
At the meeting of the Baptist Sunday School Association of Petersburg and vicinity, held in Matocca on Sunday afternoon, reports for the past month were submitted, showing the following figures: Average register, 1,461; average attendance, 1,120; per cent of attendance, 85; new scholars enrolled, 77; conversions, 7.

Board of Aldermen.
Seven of the twelve members attended the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night. The business transacted was as follows:

Two Judgments Entered.
Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

Englishman Who Worked Fake Cablegram Fails to Give Bond.

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail. The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.

King Goes to Jail

Jack King, the young Englishman, who was indicted for $1,000 by the means of a fake cablegram, was placed under $100 yesterday morning in Police Court and failing to give the security was sent to jail.

The police believe that King has been sent about the country representing himself as the son of Postmaster Edgar Allan King, and "borrowing" funds from various post offices with that of the man who has been duped would reimburse them.

Mr. Allan is now in St. Luke's Hospital. When he learned of King's arrest he summoned detectives and told them of the young man who had been masquerading as his son. Mr. Allan said that King's description tallied with that of the man who has been duped the postmistress.

Mr. Allan has but one son, and he is just three years old.

Two Judgments Entered.

Judgment was entered yesterday in the City Circuit Court in the case of Frank A. Hall & Son against the Otoburn Corporation for $100.

Judgment by consent was entered in the case of Charles Arthur Tucker against David M. Lea & Co. for $125.